NNR/JART Code of Conduct

All athletes of the Nub's Nob Alpine Racing (NNR) and Nub's Nob Junior Alpine Racing Team (JART) must agree to conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner, and are responsible for their actions while attending or participating in all NNR/JART hosted activities (including but not limited to training sessions, camps, competitions, and projects). We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behavior in the sport of alpine racing.

Sportsmanlike conduct is defined as, but is not limited to: respect for competition officials, resort employees, fellow members, and the skiing and snowboarding public, respect for facilities, privileges and operating procedures, the use of courtesy and good manners, acting responsibly and maturely, refraining from the use of profane or abusive language, and abstinence from illegal or immoderate use of alcohol and use of illegal or banned drugs.

True champions are ones who learn from their experiences to become better ski racers and more resilient athletes and who develop a lifetime passion for what they do.

As a NNR/JART athlete, I will:

- 1) maintain high standards of good and honest manners, which includes self-control and responsible actions, consideration for the physical and emotional happiness of others, and kind and respectable behavior.
- 2) train to the best of my ability at all times
- 3) race to my fullest potential at all events
- 4) respect my teammates, other racers, officials and coaches at all times
- 5) display dignity and modesty when winning
- 6) admit faults if missed by officials
- 7) be my teammates biggest fan and cheer for their successes
- 8) encourage my teammates at all times to push themselves for personal success
- 9) listen and respond to my coaches and their advice
- 10) arrive on time and ready to train or race for all sessions and events
- 11) be the best role model I can for our younger teammates
- 12) avoid profane or abusive language and disruptive behavior at all costs.

I, _____ have read and will abide by the NNR/JART Code of Conduct.
